

ReACT research dissemination and train the trainer event

Leiden, The Netherlands

17 January 2017 – Day 1

Late/afternoon – arrive at hotel in Leiden

Evening – opportunity for participants to meet with others from their own state – to be organised by individual states

18 January 2017 – Day 2

Dissemination of ReACT final research report

9.00 Registration

9.30 Session on ReACT research and recommendations -

(Chair – Katlijn Declercq, ECPAT Belgium)

Summary of findings presentation by Research Coordinator Nadine Finch (50 minutes)

Comments from SCEPT – Judith Dennis, Refugee Council (20 minutes)

- Terry Smith, Consultant to SCEPT (20 minutes)

11.00 Coffee Break

Germa Lourens, Nidos – Cross border work at a guardian (45 minutes) TBC

12.00 Discussion

13.00 Lunch

Training for Trainers

14.00 The Identification of children who may have been trafficked (Chloe Setter, ECPAT UK)

Presentation followed by discussion of case studies in four groups

15.30 Tea Break

16.00 Barriers to the identification of children who may have been trafficked / risks – (Nadine Finch, Research Coordinator)

Presentation and themed discussion

17.30 Session ends

GROUP DINNER (details TBC)

19 January 2017 – Day 3

9.00 Children trafficked for criminal exploitation (Laura Duran, ECPAT UK, and Philippa Southwell, criminal solicitor)

Presentation followed by discussion of case studies in four groups

11.00 Coffee Break

11.30 Temporary or Durable Solutions (Nadine Finch, Research Coordinator, and Laura Bosch, Defence for Children Netherlands)

Presentation followed by discussion of case studies in four groups

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Parallel Sessions (relevant professionals to attend one group)

- (a) The role of the guardian in the protection and representation of children who may have been trafficked (Chloe Setter, ECPAT UK, and guardian TBC)
- (b) The role of the lawyer in the protection and representation of children who may have been trafficked (Nadine Finch, Research Coordinator, and lawyer from Belgium (TBC))

16.00 Tea Break

16.30 The need for multi-agency working practices (Expert panel – TBC)

17.30 Session closes

17.30 Meeting for Project Partners

20 January 2017 – Day 4

- 9.00 Representation of and communicating with trafficked children (Kalvir Kaur, immigration solicitor)
- 11.00 Training for Trainers (ECPAT Germany)
- 12.30 Evaluation and closing remarks (ECPAT UK and NL)
- 13.00 Session closes

Funded by the European Union