ECPAT Network

ECPAT is a worldwide network of organizations working together to eliminate the sexual exploitation of children through prostitution, trafficking, online and in the travel and tourism sector.

At the heart of all our work is every child's right to live free from sexual exploitation and abuse.

ECPAT International is the global secretariat of the network and is based in Bangkok, Thailand. ECPAT International is conducting research on the issue, advocating for change and raising awareness on the risks children are facing today and how we all can contribute to keep them safe.

113 ECPAT members in 98 countries across the world (As of Jan. 2020)

ECPAT Germany

ECPAT Germany actively promotes the protection of children from sexual exploitation on national and international level. Together with partners in the police department, government agencies, child protection institutions and the travel and tourism industry, we carry out projects and raise awareness.

We advocate for child protection, conduct workshops, build networks and draw attention to the following topics:

Sexual Exploitation of Children in Travel and Tourism

Sexual Exploitation Online

Trafficking of Children

Safeguarding

Even if you are not sure that the situation you have witnessed is a crime, you should report!

Go to the website, make a report and help us to protect children from sexual exploitation – every information is valuable!
